Dear Friends,

I would like to invite you to join us on this special pilgrimage that will enrich your faith and make scripture come alive.

We will travel to Israel, the cradle of our faith, and walk the roads that Jesus walked. This holy land gave birth to three major religions, and we will visit ancient sites that are sacred to Christians, Jews and Muslims and gain an understanding of the ways these three faiths have impacted one another.

We will see where Jesus was born, lived and taught. We will walk the "Palm Sunday Road" and the "Via Dolorosa," the way of sorrows, that Jesus walked on his way to Golgotha. We will hear the sounds of the waves on the Sea of Galilee, and experience the aromas, the excitements and the bustle of the Old City of Jerusalem with its market squares and shops. We will feel the water of the River Jordan as we renew our baptisms and wedding vows in Cana.

Come, travel to a land filled with history, a land so small and yet so great, a land loved by our Savior. Come and experience the Bible anew as we sing, pray, travel and worship together. Come on a journey you will never forget. Space will be limited, so please send in your reservation as soon as possible.

Tuesday, October 29, 2019 — Depart Dallas: Today we begin our Holy Land journey.

Wednesday, October 30 — Tel Aviv /Herzliya: Upon arrival in Tel Aviv, we'll meet our professional tour manager and begin our journey through the Holy Land. Our first overnight is in Herzliya located on the Mediterranean Sea. (D)

Thursday, October 31 — Caesarea-by-the-Sea / Mt. Carmel / Cana / Tiberias: Today, be prepared to travel back at least 4,000 years, where every mile will tell at least one Bible story as we continue along the Mediterranean Sea to the ancient port and crusader city of Caesarea-By-The-Sea, where Peter preached and where Paul was imprisoned for two years. A Roman theater, an ancient harbor and a fortress from Crusader times testify to the importance of this seacoast city. Following lunch, we'll motor along the crest of Mt. Carmel to Muhragen where Elijah engaged in the contest with the false prophets of Baal (1 Kings 18:1-40). From an elevated platform it is possible to see the hills of Nazareth, the Mountains of Gilboa, the valley of Jezreel ("Armageddon" in Revelation 16:16), and the hills of Samaria. Before continuing to our hotel, located on the Sea of Galilee, we plan to renew our Wedding vows in Cana. Overnight in Tiberias. (BB, L, D)

Friday, November 1 — Bethsaida / Tel Hazor / Golan Heights / Tel Dan / Caesarea Philippi / Hippos / Tiberias: We begin the day by exploring the excavations at Bethsaida, the hometown of Peter, Andrew and Philip. Next, we visit Hazor, a city taken by Joshua. From here, we stop at a unique site called Qatzrin, a partially reconstructed Talmudic village. We will see what a typical village looked like during the days of Jesus. Later, we continue north through the Golan Heights to Tel Dan and its refreshing springs, one of the sources of the River Jordan where we plan to renew our Baptismal vows. Nearby is Caesarea Philippi where Jesus asked His disciples, "Who do you say I am?" (Mt. 16). We also visit the ruins of the Pan cult — nicknamed "The Gates of Hell". We end the day by driving along the western shore of the Sea of Galilee to Hippos, site of the 3rd century BC Greco-Roman city. Overnight in Tiberias. (BB, L, D)

Saturday, November 2 — Sea of Galilee / Nazareth / Sepphoris / Tiberias: This morning we cruise on the Sea of Galilee to Capernaum, Jesus' home for two years. We then visit the Mount of Beatitudes, Tabgha, the Church of the Primacy, and Chorazin (a curse on Chorazin, and Bethsaida). Following lunch this afternoon, we'll visit Nazareth, the boyhood home of Jesus and Sepphoris which Josephus called "the ornament of all Galilee." Sepphoris was the largest city in Galilee at the time of the First Revolt in 66 AD. Overnight Tiberias. (BB, L, D)

Sunday, November 3 — Bet Shean / Jericho / Jerusalem: This morning, we drive south through the Jordan Valley to Bet Shean—whose Biblical history covers the Canaanites, the Philistines (who hung Saul's body on the town walls), the Romans, and the Byzantines. We then continue to Jericho to visit the excavated Tel of the ruins of ancient Jericho. There will be time to enjoy the views of the lush green Jordan Valley from atop the Mt. of Temptation. Then, we "go up to Jerusalem" for

Monday, November 4 — Israeli Museum / Bethlehem / Jerusalem: Our morning program includes the Israeli Museum and the Holy Land Model depicting Jerusalem as it looked 2000 years ago. We then continue to Bethlehem to visit the Christmas Lutheran Church and are requesting to have a private service in the cave beneath the church followed by one of the church representatives speaking to our group to give us a better understanding of how the Christmas Church is supporting and helping the Palestinian community. Later this afternoon we'll visit the Church of the Nativity, enjoy some free time for shopping and ending our day in Shepherds' Field. Return to Jerusalem for dinner and our overnight. (BB, D)

Tuesday, November 5 — The Garden Tomb / Jerusalem / the Via Dolorosa : This morning we plan to visit the Garden Tomb for a short service and then enter Jerusalem's Old City ... today's program includes the remains of the City of David, the Western Wall, a view of the Dome of the Rock, St. Stephen's Gate, St. Anne's Crusader Church with the Pool of Bethesda, the Via Dolorosa, the Arch of Ecce Homo, Pilate's Judgment Hall, the Lithostrotos, and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. Later, there will be some free time to visit the Old City before returning to our hotel. Overnight in Jerusalem. (BB, D)

Wednesday, November 6 — Qumran / Dead Sea / Masada / Jerusalem: This morning we travel through the Judean wilderness to the Qumran Caves, the site where the community of Essenes lived and recorded the books of the Old Testament. Then we visit the shore of the Dead Sea, possibly to float in its mineral-rich waters and pass by Ein Gedi en route to Masada, where we'll visit the remarkable ruins of the fortress built by Herod the Great. Overnight in Jerusalem. (BB, D)

Thursday, November 7 — Mount of Olives / Mount Zion / Western Tunnels: This morning, we'll visit the Mount of Olives where we'll see the Church of the Ascension, the Church of the Pater Noster, and the Garden of Gethsemane. Later, crossing the Kidron Valley to Mount Zion, we pass the Tombs of Absalom and Zechariah en route to Mount Zion. Here we visit the Church of St. Peter's in Gallicantu (Caiaphas' House) and the Upper Room. Late this afternoon or in the early evening we'll visit the Western Wall and its tunnels ... one of the most popular tourist sites in Jerusalem. These underground tunnels connect the Western Wall prayer area to the northwest side of the Temple Mount, passing under the present-day houses in the Old City. Along its path are remains from the second temple period, as well as structures from later periods. The experience of walking along the tunnels is like taking a time machine back to the second temple period. Today, a small area is preserved with some of the original Roman columns. Just beyond the columns is an underground mall with a number of Jewish stores and art galleries. Overnight in Jerusalem. (BB, D)

Friday, November 8 — Tel Aviv / Dallas: Early morning departure from Tel Aviv to begin our return journey home. Arrive in Dallas in the afternoon.
